

2009 KCAC Men's Golf Conference Championship

Bethany College is the Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference 2009 golf champion. The KCAC Coach of the Year is Jon Daniels of Bethany College.

The Bethany golf Swedes won the KCAC Conference golf championship for the year, and also the KCAC final tournament held at Buffalo Dunes in Garden City, April 27 and 28.

Bethany's senior Kevin Walters of Gilbert, Arizona, was the final tournament top medalist, and the top ten finishers were the tournament individual medalists. They are named 2009 All-Conference golfers.

The conference golf championship is determined by points from four designated tournaments — one in the fall (this season, the fall Ottawa tournament), and two spring tournaments (Bethany tournament March 9-10, and Sterling tournament April 13-14), and then with triple individual and team points from the KCAC Tournament April 17-28.
